THEATRICAL.

"Everywoman" at Lexington.

The dramatic spectacle, "Everywoman," which Henry W. Savage will offer at the Lexington Opera House Jan. 1, 2 and 3, with matinees Jan. 1 and 3, represents the very last word in amusement. It is designed to please the most exacting; offer diversion to the most jaded taste. There is nothing about it to remind the spectator of any other dramatic or musical production he has ever seen. So often it occurs that someone who has not seen "Everywoman" asks someone who has what it is like. The answer usually is: "It is like—well, it is like—'Everywoman'." There is no other play or production to which it can be likened.

It proves a delight for the eye and for the ear. It is a feast for the lover of luxury; beautiful gowns upon the forms of fair women; artistic designs in costume and draperies; sumptuous stage settings evidencing a wizardry of light and color effects, the highest achievement of the specialist.

For the lover of excellent music there is an orchestra of symphonic capabilities to render the score which was composed by George Whitefield Chadwick, dean of the New England Conservatory of Music, of Boston.

For the admirer of fine acting Mr. Savage has assembled a cast with fully a score of names that are well and favorably known to everyone who follows the annals of the stage. The leading female role is played by Thais Magrane, a young woman who is said to visualize the difficult character. Her beauty enhances the value of her performance, for the "Everywoman" of the play must be beautiful. Rarely if ever has there been found such a combination of beauty and talent as Miss Magrane possesses, for she is a wonderfully gifted actress. Whether in comedy or sombre tragedy her skilful, clean-cut and sure methods are convincing and effective. In the long cast there are many other names of prominence in the theatrical world. Truth is played by Kathleen Kerrigan, an actress who reads with authority and distinction, while the Nobody is performed by Elmer Grandin.

Residents of Waterford, Ind., were panic stricken Friday at noon when a shower of meteors fell in the town, accompanied by a noise which resembled an explosion.

People rushed from their homes, screaming with fear, women clutching their children to their breasts and prayed.

The explosion shook pictures from the walls in many houses, and in some places windows were broken. The falling meteors, some of which were as large as apples, damaged houses in the vicinity.

Horses were frightened, and several runaways resulted. Many of the frightened persons rushed to the churches and prayed, thinking that the world was coming to an end.

KENTUCKIANS BUY A CHICAGO HOTEL

The fee to the Union Hotel and Restaurant property at 66-72 West Randolph street, in Chicago, has been purchased by A. J. Alexander and Kenneth Alexander and Mrs. Lucy A. Simms, of Spring Station, Woodford county, Ky., from Mrs. Virginia M. Rosenthal, wife of Moritz Rosenthal, for $600,000. The purchasers gave back a trust deed on this property and the adjoining holding at the northeast corner of West Randolph and North Clark streets, occupied by the Ashland block, as security for a loan of $500,000 for two years at 5 per cent. interest.

With the present acquisition buyers merge the fee with the leasehold, they having taken a lease on the premises just acquired for eighty years from May 1, 1911, with an extension option of twenty years, at an annual rental of $22,500. The present fee purchase squares out the buyers' holdings at that point, giving them a frontage of 160 feet on West Randolph street and eighteen feet on North Clark street.

Mrs. Simms, one of the purchasers of the property, is the wife of Mr. Will Simms, formerly of Paris.

KENTUCKY FURNISHES 823 RECRUITS FOR ARMY

Maj. Gen. George Andrews, the Adjutant General of the United States army, is pleased with the record that Kentucky made during the last fiscal year in furnishing recruits for the army. He pointed out in his annual report made public Friday, that 3,524 prospective soldiers applied for admission to the ranks at the recruiting districts of Louisville and Lexington last year. Of this number 2,701 were rejected because of physical defects. Although only 823 recruits were accepted for service the Adjutant General states that this percentage is high as compared with that of other States.

It is often the case that only one-sixth of the applicants for admission to the army at the various State headquarters are found to be physically able to meet the stringent requirements. During the last year a little more than one-fourth of the young men who sought enlistment in Kentucky were accepted. This speaks well, the Adjutant General believes, for the general good health and the physical trim of Kentucky's young men.

MAY LOSE TEETH FROM USING GASOLINE IN MOUTH

Don Franks, a well-known farmer of Scott county, may lose all his teeth as the result of holding a mouthful of gasoline for several minutes. Franks had been suffering with neuralgia of the face for the past week, and tried all the remedies of the old women in the neighborhood, without relieving his pain. Well-meaning friends suggested the use of gasoline until the gums felt numb. He acted upon the suggestion and a physician says that the teeth will certainly fall out.
